SENATE CONTROL FOR THE PROGRESSIVES

Steering Committee Named and Has but Two Conservatives on It.

MARTIN IS ONE OF THEM

That the Progressive faction of the Democratic party will control the Senate reorganization was made manifest yesterday when Senator Kern of Indiana, the new caucus chairman, named a steering committee, which will act also as a committee on committees. This committee consists of nine Senators, of which Mr. Kern is the ex-officio chairman. Seven of the nine are progressives, and the majority of the entire committee has served for a comparatively short time only in the Senate.

The old guard is represented on the committee by only two Senators—Martin of Virginia, and Clark of Arkansas. The seven progressives are Kern of Indiana, Chamberlain of Oregon, Owen of Oklahoma, O'Connor of New York, Smith of Georgia, Lee of Tennessee, and Thomas of Colorado. Most of these men have heretofore been classed as Bryan Democrats, and all of them are in sympathy with the policies of President Wilson.

The steering committee met in secret session yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to make up new committee assignments. All of the new members of the Senate were asked to designate the committees on which they preferred to serve.

The appointment of the steering committee, which was ratified by the Even Most Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After a Few Doses Are Taken.

Backache, urinary disorders, and rheumatism, are caused from weak, inactive kidneys, which fail to filter out the impurities and keep the blood pure, and the only way on earth to permanently and positively cure such troubles, is to remove the cause.

The new discovery, Croxone, cures such conditions because it reaches the very roots of the disease. It soaks right into the stopped up, inactive kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering cells and glands; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid substances that lodge in the joints and muscles to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism; it stimulates the urine so it no longer irritates the tender membranes of the bladder, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped up, lifeless kidneys so they filter and

McCOMBS TO ACCEPT PARIS POST, IS REPORT

Chairman of Democratic Committee Will Become Ambassador to France, It Is Stated.

William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has decided to accept the post of Ambassador to France, offered him by President Wilson, it was stated authoritatively last night.

Mr. McCombs has been in poor health since the tremendous strain to which he was subjected during the last year's campaigning. The post at Paris, it is believed, would afford him better opportunity to regain his health than a portfolio in the Cabinet, which it had been expected, until recently, that he would receive.

Homer S. Cummings, Democratic National Committee member from Connecticut, who was elected Wednesday to be vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee to succeed William G. McAdoo, who resigned on becoming Secretary of the Treasury, will succeed Mr. McCombs as presiding officer of the Democratic National Committee.

SCRAMBLE FOR SEATS.

Members of House No Longer to Draw for Them.

The time-honored custom of House members drawing for their seats in the House chamber has gone into the discard, according to announcement yesterday. Workmen yesterday began remodeling the House chamber, replacing the desks with benches. Heretofore every member has had his own seat, but hereafter no regular seats will be assigned, except to a few of the leaders on both sides.

The first congressman to arrive can get front seats if he so desire. This system will do away with the old plan of drawing for seats.

CLAYTON FOR COMMISSIONER

Reorganization of the Civil Service Commission was recommended in resolutions adopted last night by the National Democratic Association at a meeting at its headquarters, 913 Tenth Street Northwest. Other resolutions adopted endorsed the appointment of President Wilson as the Civil Service Commissioner of the District, to be appointed by President Wilson.

These resolutions in regard to the Civil Service Commission, which were introduced by Secretary Lorenzo G. Warfield, stated that:

"Whereas, The Republican party has filled the public offices with its political henchmen, and then extended the service to cover them into the classified service; and

"Whereas, the former President has made hundreds of appointments of political friends under the guise of non-competitive examinations; and

"Whereas, not more than 10 per cent of the employees in the classified service have ever passed a competitive examination; and

"Whereas, statistics will demonstrate that less than 15 per cent of the officeholders in the United States are Democrats; be it

CZAR'S FESTIVAL NOW UNDER WAY

High Officials of Russian Empire Join with Royal Family in Celebration.

MAY PARDON THOUSANDS

St. Petersburg, March 6.—With magnificent pomp the celebration of the tercentenary anniversary of the accession of the Romanoffs to the imperial throne of Russia was opened here to-day.

The official celebration was opened with a salute of twenty-one guns, and immediately afterward Czar Nicholas and the Czarina set out from the palace for the Kazan Cathedral. The weather was clear and bright, just right for an outdoor bill. Bells were rung, people cheered and huge bonfires were built in the streets. Buildings were decorated with Russian flags.

At the cathedral ceremonies, besides the Czar and Czarina, were many members of the imperial family, members of the council of the empire, the Duma members, and all the Cabinet.

The entire populace of St. Petersburg acclaimed the Czar as he drove through the streets at the head of a brilliant procession, consisting of the grand dukes, the heads of the army and navy, and the chief civil officials of the country.

The government secret service agents were especially active, turning back at the railroad station many strangers from other European countries, despite the fact that they held passports. To further guard the Czar against Nihilist plots, all suspicious persons have been gathered in by the police and either banished from the city during the celebration or detained in jail.

The most vital feature of the present celebration, so far as the people are concerned, is the general amnesty which will be extended by the Czar to thousands of his subjects who are now in exile or in prison. It is rumored that Nicholas II will extend clemency to several thousand exiles who are in Siberia, and will lift the ban from all his exiled subjects in America.

The visits to the cities which played an important part in the early history of his family may be postponed by the Czar until May, when the weather will be more propitious. In this itinerary will be included Kholmogorsky, where the first Romanoff, Michael, a lad of sixteen years, was elected to the throne of Vladimir by the Boyars 300 years ago.

Felicitated by Wilson.

His first message of felicitation to a fellow-ruler of a nation was sent yesterday by President Wilson, congratulating the Czar of Russia on this, the 300th anniversary of the accession of the Romanoffs to the imperial throne in Russia. President Wilson's message was as follows:

"On this 300th anniversary of the accession of Michael Feodorovich Romanoff to the imperial throne of Russia I extend to your majesty cordial felicitations and the earnest hope of the government of the United States that the bond of friendship which now unites the two nations may ever strengthen and continue."

While the Socialists enjoyed their altercation the other members sat back and laughed at the scene. The bill was finally read, after a demonstration that lasted several minutes.

Lectures on Barbarism.

"Savage Mutilation for Decoration," was the subject of an illustrated lecture given by Dr. Walter Hough yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the Anthropological Society of Washington, held in the National Museum. Dr. Hough, who has made a life-long study of the uncivilized peoples of the world, told of the love of personal adornment which has never been the chief characteristic of barbarous people.
